

GUIDE TO FOUR YEAR UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMME

First Year

Contents 33% Weightage + 67% Weightage	Choose Your Main/Major Subject Choose and study your main subject for your Honours/degree. This Main subject is called DC-1 + Foundation Courses In addition, to the above main subject, you will be exposed to Foundation Courses (FC). These courses will help you to understand the challenges of India. You will work in a hands-on manner. Your communication, IT and data analysis skills will be improved and you will learn in an inter-disciplinary mode.
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Second Year

Contents 34% Weightage + 33% Weightage + 16% Weightage + 16% Weightage	Main/Major Subject You will continue your study of Major subject (DC-I) + Foundation Courses You will be further exposed to a small number of Foundation Courses that will enhance knowledge in a hands-on project mode for wide ranging benefits. + Minor Subject You will have to choose from a wide variety of subjects a maximum of two subjects of your liking for additional knowledge outside your major area of study, These courses will be called DC-II courses. + Applied Courses You will choose two courses from a vast choice of knowledge-based skills courses that will help increase your employability or help make you an entrepreneur.
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Third Year

Contents 60% Weightage + 20% Weightage + 20% Weightage	Main/Major Subject You will now be given greater depth in your major subject + Minor Subject You will continue the study of your choice of DC-II subjects to enhance your knowledge outside your major area of study. + Applied Courses You will once again choose two courses from a vast choice of knowledge-based skills courses that will help increase your employability or help make you an entrepreneur.
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Fourth Year

Contents 75% Weightage + 25% Weightage	Main/Major Subject You will now study at a deep level your main / major subject (DC-I). You will also be exposed to research + Minor Subject You will continue the study of your choice of DC-II subjects to enhance your knowledge outside your major area of study.
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------